JULY 20TH, 2025
10:30 AM WORSHIP SERVICE

Welcome to Westminster (PCA)

*To all who are weary, and need rest,
To all who mourn, and long for comfort,
To all who feel worthless, and wonder if God cares,
To all who fail, and desire strength,
To all who sin, and need a Savior,
Westminster Presbyterian Church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus himself, the Friend of sinners.*

If you're visiting this morning, thank you so much for worshipping with us here at Westminster! If you don't mind, please fill out the Connect Card found on the back of the pew near you and drop it in the offering plate. Or better yet, stop by the church lobby on the way out, and we'd love to give you a special gift from our family to yours.

Confession of Sin

Based on 1 John 1:5-10

O God, we know that You are light, and in You is no darkness at all. But we sometimes hide in our darkness and do not practice the truth. We know we are sinners by nature and volition. If we deny our sin, the truth is not in us. So we confess our sins of thought, will, and deed to You. Help us to confess to one another and pray for each other, that Your word may dwell richly in us. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

*All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time.
(1 Cor. 11:27-29; Romans 10:9-10)*

Heidelberg Catechism #75

Q. 75. How does the holy supper remind and assure you that you share in Christ's one sacrifice on the cross and in all his benefits?

A. In this way: Christ has commanded me and all believers to eat this broken bread and to drink this cup in remembrance of him. With this command come these promises: First, as surely as I see with my eyes the bread of the Lord broken for me and the cup shared with me, so surely his body was offered and broken for me and his blood poured out for me on the cross. Second, as surely as I receive from the hand of him who serves, and taste with my mouth the bread and cup of the Lord, given me as sure signs of Christ's body and blood, so surely he nourishes and refreshes my soul for eternal life with his crucified body and poured-out blood.

Doxology

Prayer Requests

Please remember Summit Christian School in your prayers this week.

Praises:

- For a well-completed school year of academic and spiritual growth- including several students coming to Christ!
- For the teachers who strive every day to expand their students' understanding of the world around them and Lord Jesus's mandate for each of them.
- For the administrators who work so hard to get the most from all the resources available to the school to meet high goals and standards.
- For the board and church leaders who make sure this ministry is well-guided spiritually and culturally.

Prayers:

- For the financial needs of the upcoming school year.
- For the rest that all staff and teachers, parents and children need this summer.
- For each family represented at the school to grow in their faith in Jesus and display that in their homes and lives.

Joe & Rhonda Barker

Joe and Rhonda Barker serve at TWR's office in Cary, NC. TWR is the largest Christian media organization in the world. It uses multiple technologies to reach 190 countries in more than 300 languages and dialects.

Praise:

- A new President for TWR has been named: longtime board member Andy Schick, from New Zealand. (Lauren Libby, the highly effective president for 16 years suffered a debilitating stroke recently)
- Episode 1 of Journey to Hope, an animated series designed to introduce Jesus to people deeply steeped in Buddhism has been released to a church-planting team in Thailand.

Prayer:

- Please pray for Andy Schick as he steps into his role as president of TWR.
- Pray for Journey to Hope to have a huge impact in Thailand. 88% of Thai villages have no Christian witness. Where there is some form of Christian witness the Church is growing faster than the population.
