Philemon

RECONCILIATION IN CHRIST

Philemon is one of the shortest books in the Bible, yet it paints a profound picture of the gospel at work. In Paul's appeal on behalf of Onesimus, we see how Christ's grace brings reconciliation where there was once division, healing broken relationships and creating a new family in Him. This letter reminds us that the cross not only reconciles us to God but also calls us to extend that same grace and forgiveness to one another. Join us on October 19th as Pastor Ryan preaches on this letter to Philemon and how it points to all of our reconciliation in Christ.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Psalm 123:1-2

To you I lift up my eyes, O you who are enthroned in the heavens! Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maidservant to the hand of her mistress, so our eyes look to the Lord our God, till he has mercy upon us.

Confession of Sin

Lord Jesus, I would have never known the depths of my sinful nature had I not been given the grace to recognize the height, breadth, and depth of your everlasting righteousness. Your goodness is strong and steady, while even my best efforts are stained with selfish intent. Your faithfulness causes me to despise my waywardness. Who could love a sinner such as I? Only a patient and loving Father. This is a faithful statement worthy of all acceptance, that ‘Jesus died for sinners.’ O Lamb of God, I come. Amen.

Hebrews 13:20-21

Now may the God of peace who brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, the great shepherd of the sheep, by the blood of the eternal covenant, equip you with everything good that you may do his will, working in us that which is pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be glory forever and ever. Doxology

Prayer Requests

Children's Worship:

Pray for our Westminster families to embrace this season as an opportunity to grow in faith—teaching and living out Christ's love in their homes. Pray for each volunteer for strength of each volunteer and for God's blessing to be poured out on each one.

Children's Ministry:

Volunteers: Pray for our servant leaders to walk closely with the Lord and serve with integrity, humility, and grace. May their time in Scripture deepen their faith and their ministry bear lasting fruit among our Westminster Kids.

Westminster Kids: Please pray that they would grow in wisdom, in stature, and in favor with both God and others. Ask the Lord to guard their hearts and minds. May they fix their eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of their faith, and shine as His faithful witnesses at home, and throughout their community.

Traci: Please pray as she partners with Gage to continue building the Children's Ministry. Pray that she will grow in her relationship with the LORD and that her words would be seasoned with grace and bring life to those around her. Pray that she would walk faithfully in integrity and love, reflecting Christ in all her relationships and service.

Pray for St. George – that the light of Christ would shine in the midst of recent tragedies and remind people that true hope is found in Jesus.

Pray for Gospel Witness – that God would use His church to faithfully share Christ, even as violence has created sympathy for the LDS church.

Pray for Clarity – that Christians would not be confused by cultural claims equating Mormonism with Christianity, but instead hold fast to the truth of the gospel.

Pray for the Church in Utah – for All Saints Reformed Church, the six other PCA congregations, and all faithful believers laboring among LDS neighbors.

Pray for Greater Understanding – that believers would grow in discernment by studying resources that expose the differences between Mormonism and biblical Christianity.
