MICAH

From MESS to MESSIAH

The prophet Micah speaks into a world filled with injustice, idolatry, and spiritual confusion — a world not so different from ours! Yet in the midst of the mess, God promises a coming Shepherd-King born in Bethlehem who will bring peace, justice, and hope. Join us during Advent into the new year, as we journey through the book of Micah to see how God meets us in our brokenness and leads us to the Messiah who makes all things new.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Lamentations 3:21-26

But this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

“The Lord is my portion,” says my soul, “therefore I will hope in him.”

The Lord is good to those who wait for him, to the soul who seeks him. It is good that one should wait quietly for the salvation of the Lord.

Confession of Sin

O sovereign LORD, I have struggled to retain my independence from You with the prideful assumption that I can care for myself. I have resisted Your Spirit's insistence on changing me from the inside out. I care more about how I appear than about Your character, which is expressed in Your word. I stubbornly flounder on my own, only to cry out to You as a last resort. Please forgive my waywardness and bring me back to You.

Assurance of Pardon

Jeremiah 50:20

In those days and in that time, declares the Lord, iniquity shall be sought in Israel, and there shall be none, and sin in Judah, and none shall be found, for I will pardon those whom I leave as a remnant.

Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Supper

*All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time.

Heidelberg Catechism #112-113

Q. 112. What is God's will for you in the ninth commandment?

A. That I never give false testimony against anyone, twist no one's words, not gossip or slander, nor join in condemning anyone rashly or without a hearing. Rather, I should avoid, under penalty of God's wrath, every kind of lying and deceit as the very works of the devil; and, in court and everywhere else, I should love the truth, speak it candidly, and openly acknowledge it. And I should do what I can to defend and advance my neighbor's honor and reputation.

Q. 113. What is God's will for you in the tenth commandment?

A. That not even the slightest desire or thought contrary to any one of God's commandments should ever arise in our hearts. Rather, with all our hearts we should always hate sin and delight in all righteousness.

Benediction

Ephesians 3:18-19

May you have strength to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Doxology

Prayer Requests

Please pray for the Children's Ministry this week, that:

- Our children would grow in the knowledge and grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, delighting in His Word.
- Their hearts would be shaped by gratitude, as they learn that every good and perfect gift comes from our Father above.
- Parents, teachers, and the whole covenant community would faithfully nurture them in the fear and admonition of the Lord, modeling repentance, faith, and joy in Christ.
- The Lord would fill our volunteers and Traci with thanksgiving, reminding them that their service is unto Christ.
- In the busyness of ministry, they would find rest and renewal in the promises of God, drawing strength from His Word and the fellowship of His people.
- Their labor would bear lasting fruit in the lives of those they serve, pointing many to the hope and joy found only in Jesus.

Miles Ranch provides Equine Assisted Psychotherapy (EAP) and mental health services for veterans suffering with combat related PTSD. The Miles Ranch also provides Equine Assisted Psychotherapy and mental health services for underprivileged children with mental health diagnoses.

Praise:

- For the disabled bathroom facility through the grace of WPC and the deacons.
- For one of our new veterans to acknowledge his need for faith and him beginning to believe in Christ through counseling, God's general revelation at the ranch, and the evidence we have shown him.
- For the wonderful support letter from Matthew at Summit Christian School.

Prayers:

- For sponsors of children's sessions and additional funding so we can continue the children's programs at the ranch without medicaid funding.
- For continued funding for the veterans programs and upkeep of the ranch and therapy animals.
