In Matthew 10–12, we see Jesus on a mission marked by compassion for the lost, mercy for the broken, and the promise of true spiritual rest. Yet this mission is also greatly resisted by those who oppose Christ and his followers. Join us this spring as Pastor Ryan preaches through this section of Matthew and discover that the same King who began His work 2,000 years ago is still powerfully at work in and through His people today.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Based on Psalm 63:2-4

Look upon the Lord in the sanctuary, beholding his power and glory.

Because his steadfast love is better than life, let your lips praise him.

Bless him as long as you live; in his name, lift up your hands.

Confession of Sin

Adapted from a Puritan Prayer

Lord Jesus, give me a deeper repentance, a horror of sin, and a dread of its approach. Help me chastely to flee it and jealously to resolve that my heart shall be Yours alone. Give me a deeper trust that I may lose myself to find myself in You, the ground of my rest, the spring of my being. Give me a deeper knowledge of Yourself as Savior, Master, Lord, and King. Give me deeper power in private prayer, more sweetness in Your Word, and a steadfast grip on its truth. Give me deeper holiness in speech, thought, and action; let me not seek moral virtue apart from You. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time.

Heidelberg Catechism #118-119

Q. 118. What has God commanded us to ask of him?

A. Everything we need, spiritually and physically, as embraced in the prayer Christ our Lord himself taught us.

Q. 119. What is this prayer?

A. Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Benediction

Romans 16:25-27

Now to him who is able to strengthen you according to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery that was kept secret for long ages but has now been disclosed and through the prophetic writings has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the eternal God, to bring about the obedience of faith to the only wise God be glory forevermore through Jesus Christ! Amen.

MISSIONS SPOTLIGHT

FGCU Interns

Noah Brown

Was born and raised in a Christian home in Fort Myers. He became a Christian while in high school. In 2019 Noah became involved with RUF as a freshman and started being a student leader as a junior in 2021. He began an RUF internship in 2023. Noah enjoys watching students grow over the course of a year: he sees lots of sanctification going on!

Please Pray: Noah’s mom passed away in three months ago. He asks for continued comfort and grace for him and his family.

Mika Sesler

Grew up in Orange County, California. She attended UCLA and graduated with a degree in financial actuarial mathematics. She was involved in RUF throughout her college years. God used RUF to further her knowledge of Him and especially His character. She is the RUF intern who has been placed the furthest from home. Mika most enjoys seeing girls grow in their faith, especially through reading and discussing the Bible together.

Please Pray: Mika is experiencing homesickness: she misses her friends and family. She is asking God that she would maintain a humble heart and be true to the word of God when she is reading and discussing the Bible with girls.
