In Matthew 10–12, we see Jesus on a mission marked by compassion for the lost, mercy for the broken, and the promise of true spiritual rest. Yet this mission is also greatly resisted by those who oppose Christ and his followers. Join us this spring as Pastor Ryan preaches through this section of Matthew and discover that the same King who began His work 2,000 years ago is still powerfully at work in and through His people today.

Confession of Sin

Adopted from the Strasbourg Liturgy of 1545

Brothers and sisters, let each of you present yourself before the face of the Lord, and confess your sins, reading with me, from the heart:

O eternal and almighty Father, we confess before Your holy Majesty that we are poor sinners, conceived in iniquity, prone to do evil, and incapable of any good. In our depravity, we transgress Your holy commandments without ceasing; therefore, we purchase for ourselves, through Your righteous judgment, our ruin and perdition. But we are grieved, O Lord, that we have offended You, and we turn to You with true repentance, beseeching Your grace to relieve our distress. O God and Father, most gracious and full of compassion, have mercy upon us in the name of Your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Matthew 11:28-30

Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

Pastoral Prayer

Sermon

“Reached for Christ” | Psalm 78:1-8

Pastor Lucas Tanner

Sermon Notes:

The Lord's Supper

*All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time.
(1 Cor. 11:27-29; Romans 10:9-10)*

Heidelberg Catechism #120-121

Q. 120. Why has Christ commanded us to address God as “our Father”?

A. To awaken in us at the very beginning of our prayer what should be basic to our prayer—a childlike reverence and trust that through Christ God has become our Father, and will much less refuse to give us what we ask in faith than will our parents refuse us the things of this life.

Q. 121. Why the words “who is in heaven”?

A. These words teach us not to think of God's heavenly majesty in an earthly way, and to expect from his almighty power everything needed for body and soul.
