THE TRUE KING

Matthew 14–18

In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything: "Who do you say I am?" Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Psalm 24:3-6

Who shall ascend the hill of the LORD? And who shall stand in his holy place?

He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the LORD and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

Such is the generation of those who seek him, who seek the face of the God of Jacob.

Confession of Sin

Romans 7:18-19; 24-25a

For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, my flesh. For I have the desire to do what is right, but not the ability to carry it out. For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I keep on doing. Wretched man that I am! Who will deliver me from this body of death? Thanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord!

Assurance of Pardon

Titus 3:4-6

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 3: Of God's Eternal Decree

7. The rest of mankind God was pleased, according to the unsearchable counsel of his own will, whereby he extendeth or withholdeth mercy, as he pleaseth, for the glory of his sovereign power over his creatures, to pass by; and to ordain them to dishonor and wrath for their sin, to the praise of his glorious justice.

8. The doctrine of this high mystery of predestination is to be handled with special prudence and care, that men, attending the will of God revealed in his Word, and yielding obedience thereunto, may, from the certainty of their effectual vocation, be assured of their eternal election. So shall this doctrine afford matter of praise, reverence, and admiration of God; and of humility, diligence, and abundant consolation to all that sincerely obey the gospel.

Benediction

2 Thessalonians 3:5

May the Lord direct your hearts to the love of God and to the steadfastness of Christ.

WHY DO
WE DO THAT?

UNDERSTANDING OUR
LITURGICAL ELEMENTS

Confession of Sin

As sinners in a fallen world, we need to honestly acknowledge the brokenness in us and in the world around us. We take time in our gatherings each Sunday to do this with a confession of our sin. The Scriptures give us a voice to cry out for God’s light to shine in our darkness, and each Sunday we want to have the opportunity to corporately humble ourselves before our holy and merciful God.

This typically involves a responsive reading or prayer and a moment of silence and personal confession of sin.
