THE TRUE KING

Matthew 14–18

In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything: "Who do you say I am?" Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Psalm 67:1-7

May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face to shine upon us, that your way may be known on earth, your saving power among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you!

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide the nations upon the earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you!

The Earth has yielded its increase; God, our God, shall bless us.

God shall bless us; let all the ends of the earth fear him!

Confession of Sin

From The Valley of Vision

O God of Grace, I bewail my cold, listless, heartless prayers. Their poverty adds sin to sin. If my hope were in them I should be undone, but the worth of Jesus perfumes my feeble breathings and wins their acceptance. Deepen my contrition of heart. Confirm my faith in the blood that washes from all sin. May I walk lovingly with my great Redeemer. Flood my soul with true repentance that my heart may be broken for sin and unto sin.

The Lord's Supper

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 4: Of Creation

1. It pleased God the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, for the manifestation of the glory of his eternal power, wisdom, and goodness, in the beginning, to create, or make of nothing, the world, and all things therein whether visible or invisible, in the space of six days; and all very good.

2. After God had made all other creatures, he created man, male and female, with reasonable and immortal souls, endued with knowledge, righteousness, and true holiness, after his own image; having the law of God written in their hearts, and power to fulfill it: and yet under a possibility of transgressing, being left to the liberty of their own will, which was subject unto change. Beside this law written in their hearts, they received a command, not to eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil; which while they kept, they were happy in their communion with God, and had dominion over the creatures.

Benediction

Based on Deuteronomy 4:31

Hear this good news: The Lord your God is a merciful God. He will not leave you or destroy you or forget the covenant with your fathers that he swore to them.

WHY DO
WE DO THAT?

UNDERSTANDING OUR
LITURGICAL ELEMENTS

Weekly Lord’s Supper

The Lord’s Supper (or Communion) is a tradition given to the church by Jesus Christ which calls us to remember his death on the cross for us. It is a unique and beautiful way of preaching the gospel as the broken bread represents his broken body, and the cup represents his shed blood. We observe this meal together as a church each week because we believe the clearest testimony of Scripture is that this was something done every time the church gathered. We do this in response to the preaching of God’s Word, being spiritually nourished by the Lord and reminded of our unity in the Gospel. All who have trusted in Christ for salvation are welcome to join us by coming forward to partake.
(Luke 22:7-23; 1 Cor. 11:17-34)
