THE TRUE KING

Matthew 14–18

In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything: "Who do you say I am?" Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Micah 7:18-19

Who is a God like you, pardoning iniquity and passing over transgression for the remnant of his inheritance?

He does not retain his anger forever, because he delights in steadfast love.

He will again have compassion on us; he will tread our iniquities underfoot.

You will cast all our sins into the depths of the sea.

Confession of Sin

Psalms 51:1-2

Have mercy on me, O God, according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy blot out my transgressions. Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin!

Assurance of Pardon

Galatians 3:13-14

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us—for it is written, “Cursed is everyone who is hanged on a tree”—so that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles, so that we might receive the promised Spirit through faith.

Congregational Prayer

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 5: Of Providence

1. God the great Creator of all things doth uphold, direct, dispose and govern all creatures, actions, and things, from the greatest even to the least, by his most wise and holy providence, according to his infallible foreknowledge, and the free and immutable counsel of his own will, to the praise of the glory of his wisdom, power, justice, goodness, and mercy.

2. Although, in relation to the foreknowledge and decree of God, the First Cause, all things come to pass immutably, and infallibly; yet, by the same providence, he ordereth them to fall out, according to the nature of second causes, either necessarily, freely, or contingently.

Benediction

Based on Deuteronomy 31:7-8

Hear the good news that Moses spoke to Joshua and to all Israel: Be strong and courageous. It is the Lord who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave or forsake you.

WE DO THAT?

Benediction

We conclude our services each week with a benediction, which is a blessing for the road. The word “benediction” comes from the Latin for “a good word”. One of our pastors will dismiss us with such a blessing, reminding us that the same God who gathers us also sends us out with his blessing, as his people, to live for his glory. We see various benedictions in Scripture (Numbers 6:24-26; 2 Cor. 13:14; Hebrews 13:20-21; etc), and often use one of these or may come up with our own. We raise our hands during the benediction as a sign of our unity with one another and receptiveness towards God’s blessing.
