In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything: "Who do you say I am?" Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Isaiah 55:1-3

Come, everyone who thirsts, come to the waters; and he who has no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy? Listen diligently to me, and eat what is good, and delight yourselves in rich food. Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, that your soul may live; and I will make with you an everlasting covenant, my steadfast, sure love for David.

Confession of Sin

Isaiah 64:6-9

We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteousness deeds are like a polluted garment. We fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have made us melt in the hand of our iniquities. But now, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Be not so terribly angry, O Lord, and remember not iniquity forever. Behold, please look, we are all your people.

Assurance of Pardon

John 6:35, 40

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me shall not hunger, and whoever believes in me shall never thirst... For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day.”

Congregational Prayer

(During this time kids age 5 - 2nd grade are invited to join us for Children’s Worship.)

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 5: Of Providence

- 3. God, in his ordinary providence, maketh use of means, yet is free to work without, above, and against them, at his pleasure.
- 4. The almighty power, unsearchable wisdom, and infinite goodness of God so far manifest themselves in his providence, that it extendeth itself even to the first fall, and all other sins of angels and men; and that not by a bare permission, but such as hath joined with it a most wise and powerful bounding, and otherwise ordering, and governing of them, in a manifold dispensation, to his own holy ends; yet so, as the sinfulness thereof proceedeth only from the creature, and not from God, who, being most holy and righteous, neither is nor can be the author or approver of sin.

Benediction

Romans 15:13

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Gospel-Driven Liturgy

Every church uses a “liturgy” in their corporate worship. The liturgy is the form, traditions, and arrangements used in the worship service. At Westminster, we want the liturgy of our Sunday Gathering to be shaped by the Gospel as much as possible. Our liturgy is structured by 4 sections: 1. Creation (Call To Worship) 2. Fall (Confession or Lament) 3. Redemption (Assurance of Pardon, Congregational Prayer) 4. Restoration (Sermon, Lord’s Supper Response, Benediction). Every week, we are able to think on God’s holy nature & activity, the brokenness of sin in us & the world around us, the hope for pardon through Christ, and our faithful response as we seek to be a Gospel-Driven, Word- Based, Church-Oriented, Mission-Minded people who worship Jesus for his glory and our good.
