OCTOBER 11TH 2026
10:30 AM WORSHIP SERVICE

Welcome to Westminster (PCA)

*To all who are weary, and need rest,
To all who mourn, and long for comfort,
To all who feel worthless, and wonder if God cares,
To all who fail, and desire strength,
To all who sin, and need a Savior,
Westminster Presbyterian Church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus himself, the Friend of sinners.*

If you're visiting this morning, thank you so much for worshipping with us here at Westminster! If you don't mind, please fill out the Connect Card found on the back of the pew near you and drop it in the offering plate. Or better yet, stop by the church lobby on the way out, and we'd love to give you a special gift from our family to yours.

In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything: "Who do you say I am?" Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Congregational Prayer

Prayer is not just an optional-extra but an essential component of what God's people are called to do when we gather (Acts 2:42, Acts 4:23-31, 2 Cor 1:11). It is also a core responsibility for church leaders (1 Pet 5:1-5; Acts 6:3). Sunday mornings are a great opportunity to lead in this way, as all of God's people at Westminster are gathered together! So we will take time each week for extended, intentional prayer for spiritual matters, church family matters, regional & global matters, and for illumination as we prepare to hear the sermon.

Call to Worship/Invocation

Psalms 89:1-4

I will sing of the steadfast love of the Lord forever; with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations. For I said, “Steadfast love will be built up forever; in the heavens you will establish your faithfulness.” You have said, “I have made a covenant with my chosen one; I have sworn to David my servant: ‘I will establish your offspring forever and build your throne for all generations.’”

Confession of Sin

From The Book of Common Prayer

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Acts 13:38-39

Let it be known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you, and by him everyone who believes is freed from everything from which you could not be freed by the law of Moses.

The Lord's Supper

All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time.

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 5: Of Providence

6. As for those wicked and ungodly men whom God, as a righteous Judge, for former sins, doth blind and harden, from them he not only withholdeth his grace whereby they might have been enlightened in their understandings, and wrought upon in their hearts; but sometimes also withdraweth the gifts which they had, and exposeth them to such objects as their corruption makes occasions of sin; and, withal, gives them over to their own lusts, the temptations of the world, and the power of Satan, whereby it comes to pass that they harden themselves, even under those means which God useth for the softening of others.

7. As the providence of God doth, in general, reach to all creatures; so, after a most special manner, it taketh care of his church, and disposeth all things to the good thereof.
