NOVEMBER 8TH 2026
10:30 AM WORSHIP SERVICE

Welcome to Westminster (PCA)

To all who are weary, and need rest,
To all who mourn, and long for comfort,
To all who feel worthless, and wonder if God cares,
To all who fail, and desire strength,
To all who sin, and need a Savior,
Westminster Presbyterian Church opens wide her doors with a welcome from Jesus himself, the Friend of sinners.

If you're visiting this morning, thank you so much for worshipping with us here at Westminster! If you don't mind, please fill out the Connect Card found on the back of the pew near you and drop it in the offering plate. Or better yet, stop by the church lobby on the way out, and we'd love to give you a special gift from our family to yours.

In Matthew 14–18, Jesus feeds thousands, walks on water, heals the broken, instructs his church, and asks the question that changes everything:

"Who do you say I am?"

Along the way, He redefines what kingship, faith, and following Him actually cost. Join us this Fall as Pastor Ryan continues our journey through the Gospel, and we get to know The True King all the better.

Call To Worship

Because Worship begins with God and not us, we begin our gatherings each Sunday with a "Call To Worship", where we intentionally start by focusing our attention on the character, nature, and deeds of our God. This involves reading a passage of Scripture (usually a Psalm) which helps us center our attention on God's holy attributes and actions, while inviting us to join together in proclaiming his praise. Jesus is the Author & Perfecter of our faith, so we want to begin each week by fixing our eyes on him. (Hebrews 12:2)

Welcome/Call To Worship

Psalm 145:1-3

I will extol you, my God and King, and bless your name forever and ever.
Every day I will bless you and praise your name forever and ever.
Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and his greatness is unsearchable.

Confession of Sin

Adapted from The Valley of Vision

O Lord, our every sense, member, faculty, and affection is a snare to us. We can hardly open our eyes without envying those above us or despising those below our station in life. We covet the honor and riches of the mighty, and we are proud and unmerciful to those we see as lesser. When we behold beauty, it is a bait towards lustful thoughts. And how quickly does slander, improper joking, and careless speech creep into our hearts and onto our lips! We confess that all the aspects of our flesh are corrupt and defiled by sin, and that our greatest snare towards sin lies within ourselves. Keep us sensitive towards our sinfulness, but let us not forget our heavenly title or the grace that can deal with every sin. In the name of Christ we pray. Amen.

Assurance of Pardon

Isaiah 43:25

"I, I am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake, and I will not remember your sins."

Scripture Reading

Matthew 18:1-9

The grass withers and the flowers fade.
But the word of our Lord stands forever. Amen.

The Lord's Supper

All believers in Jesus Christ who are members in good standing of a Gospel-preaching church are invited to join us in communion. Children and others who this does not describe are asked to abstain and consider the promises of the Gospel during this time. (1 Cor. 11:27-29; Romans 10:9-10)

Westminster Confession of Faith

Chapter 6: Of the Fall of Man, of Sin, and of the Punishment Thereof

5. This corruption of nature, during this life, doth remain in those that are regenerated; and although it be, through Christ, pardoned, and mortified; yet both itself, and all the motions thereof, are truly and properly sin.

6. Every sin, both original and actual, being a transgression of the righteous law of God, and contrary thereunto, doth, in its own nature, bring guilt upon the sinner, whereby he is bound over to the wrath of God, and curse of the law, and so made subject to death, with all miseries spiritual, temporal, and eternal.
